

Presentation for the IAML Conference

2016 in Rome

RISM - Zentralredaktion - Klaus Keil

Overview

- General information about RISM
 - International joint project
 - Aims for the detailed description of musical sources
 - Independent working groups in 37 countries
 - Series A/I: Individual prints before 1800
 - Series A/II: Music manuscripts after 1600
 - Series B: Sources on specific topics
 - Series C: Directory of music research libraries (sigla)
 - RISM online catalog

Contents

1. RISM online catalog
2. Major data additions planned
3. New release 2017 (if grant accepted)
4. New volume in series B
5. Survey results on the website
6. RISM sigla - Cooperation with AMA
7. MUSCAT, the new cataloging program

RISM online catalog

- 1,046,662 records
- 2,563 repositories
- 894,071 records on manuscripts
- 428,339 records for printed music
- 4,603 mixed
- Records from 44 countries

Major data additions planned

- Data from RISM France
- ICCU musica
- National Library of Spain (Madrid)
- National Library of Austria (Vienna)

New release 2017 (if grant accepted)

- Improvements proposed from survey (some just now)
- Better integration of RISM authority files
- Links to external content via GND or VIAF

New volume in Series B

Volume no. XVII:

Die Triosonate. Catalogue Raisonné der gedruckten
Quellen.

Edited by Ludwig Finscher, Laurenz Lütteken and Inga Mai Groote, assisted by Cristina Urchueguía,
Gabriela Freiburghaus and Nicola Schneider.
Munich: Henle, 2016.

1 volume and database

Survey

Results on the website:

www.rism.info/en/community/survey.html

See also News

RISM sigla - Cooperation with AMA

- Content of Series C will be included in Muscat and merged with the RISM sigla database
- Guidelines have been made
- Test successful

MUSCAT, the new cataloging program

- Browser based and platform independent
- Free of charge
- For both A series and B 1 and B 2
- Kallisto users must change on a cutoff date (TBA)
- Online tutorials and videos will be available
- Introduction courses can be organized

THANK YOU !

RISM Zentralredaktion

www.RISM.info